

Project Engineer

We are seeking a project engineer with an electrical background to undertake as directed the day to day co-ordination for all aspects of Power Supplies Project engineering.

Duties Include:-

- Reporting to the PM. Undertake role of Project Engineer on specific projects as required.
- Work with Design team to ensure technical specifications are issued as required for client and sub-contractors.
- Undertake CRE duties on Network Rail contracts as appropriate.
- Preparation of project specific Work Package Plans and task briefs
- Undertake project specific risk assessments
- Co-ordination of allocated project activities on behalf of the Project Manager to ensure that Project works required are completed to programme and to the required quality.
- Ensure project materials are procured in accordance with the design and in line with programme and budgets.
- Ensure activities comply with PSP HSQE Policies, conform to contractual obligations and meet statutory HS&E regulations.

Qualifications:- minimum of ONC/HNC in relevant discipline; IOSH desirable.