

Project Manager

We are seeking a Project Manager with either Rail Electrification or Electrical Supply Industry background.

Responsible for day to day co-ordination for all aspects of PSP Limited Projects, leading a small team of engineer's on specific projects.

Duties Include:-

- Undertake role of Project Manager on specific projects as required.
- Liaise with PSP's Design Team to ensure technical specifications are issued as required for client and sub-contractors.
- To manage the overall technical co-ordination of allocated project areas on behalf of the Directors to ensure that the engineering work required is completed to programme and to the required quality.
- Attend weekly project review meetings with the PSP Management Team to review progress and set targets in accordance with overall programme.
- Liaise with client, contractors and third parties as required
- Ensure Engineering team members under your control are fully briefed, competent and in control of project activities.
- Ensure activities comply with PSP HSQE Policies and conform to contractual obligations.
- Prepare monthly project reports including commercial status.

Qualifications:- Minimum HNC/HND, Degree preferable in related discipline.